

DesignPoint is a professional engineering and surveying firm specializing in municipal/civil projects including infrastructure master planning, land development, municipal infrastructure, hydrologic and hydraulic modelling, flood studies, transportation design, structural engineering, geotechnical investigations and materials testing, legal and topographical surveys, as well as specialized surveying.

DesignPoint is looking for a Survey Technologist to join our team. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work on a wide variety of different projects, using state of the art equipment and software, and to work closely with the principals and other senior staff at the firm.

Key responsibilities include:

- Completion of topographic and legal surveys;
- Completion of construction surveys;
- Regular communication with Project Surveyors
- Regular communication with contractors and clients;
- Attend safety meetings;

Key requirements include:

- Survey Technician Geomatics Technologist diploma or equivalent experience;
- Experience on legal/topographic survey projects;
- Ability to use survey equipment (total station, GPS, laser scanner);
- Ability to work outside in all weather conditions;
- Ability to self-initiate and problem solve;
- Ability to use and experience with a chainsaw is an asset;
- Attention to detail;
- Strong written and oral communication (English) skills;
- Ability to work in a team environment; and
- Valid driver's license.

Key Benefits:

- Respectful and collaborative work environment;
- Ability to grow and develop with a small local firm;
- Career and personal development opportunities; and
- Competitive benefits and remuneration packages.

Please email your resume to Alicia Crossland at alicia.crossland@designpoint.ca